Li Bai - poems - PoemHunter.com: Poems

And would never lose heart in the tower of silent watching
Then when I was sixteen, you left on a long journey
Through the Gorges of Ch'u-t'ang, of rock and whirling water
And then came the Fifth-month, more than I could bear,
And I tried to hear the monkeys in your lofty far-off sky
Your footprints by our door, where I had watched you go,
